Thanksgiving a Day of Peace and Quiet.

Tho there were no church services according to custom, all the bells of the town were rung at 11 o'clock in token of peace and gratitude, that the people might be reminded of their special obligations, on this day of thankfulness to God the giver of peace and all good things.

To the Tax Payers

Six per cent penalty will be added on all taxes not paid by the first day of December. I shall regret very much to have to collect the penalty, as taxes are high enough without anything added.

I request therefore that you protect yourselves against this additional bur- den by paying your taxes before the penalty goes on.

Cortez Sanders,
Sheriff Adair County, Ky

The question is often asked, now that the war is over, will the Russell building again be enlivened with a fresh stock of goods. That magnif- icent building, filled with a fresh stock of general merchandise, would enliven all other classes of business in Colum- bia. As a merchant, Mr. Russell ranks among the best in the State, and at all times looks after his own interest in a business way, and we trust that it will be made plain to him and his associates, to continue in the same line and on the same popular corner.

Next week the children will com- mence looking through the show win- dows and longing for the many choice articles, on display, for Christmas. Every child in Columbia should be re- membered on the 25th. If there are those among us whose parents are not able to provide, let the good Christian women of the town organize, collect money and see that every little girl and boy has a Christmas present.

The crowd that attended Ores Bar- ger's sale, last Tuesday, was not large but every thing sold. She following prices were realized: Corn, $7.00 per barrel; one mule, $135; a suckling mule $50; four shoats $50; one cow, $39; hay $1.00 per hundred. Farming imple- ments sold well.

Born, to the wife of Duard Taylor, near Gradyville, Nov. 28, a son.

War and Foreign Items.

The Germans held 1,500,000 prison- ers of the Allies, all of whom are being released. The American prison- ers are reported as being in good conditions. The British were the worse treated of the prisoners held.

The 84th and 38th Divisions A. E. F., in France will be sent back to the U. S., at an early date and be demobilized at Camp Zachary Taylor.

The Austrian Republic announces its intention of bringing to trial for causing the war former officials and dignitaries, including ex-Emperor Charles. Old Franz Joseph is having his trials in the courts of Inferno.

England's legal authorities are tak- ing steps looking to the extradition of Wm. Hohenzollern and the ex-Crown Prince from Holland to stand trial for their crimes against individuals and nations.

Austria is bankrupt, its treasury gold reserve being only 500,000 crowns.

Bitter warfare is still going on in Russia. American and British armies are lined up against the Bolshevik troops in desperate conflict along the Dvina river south of Archangel. The weather is severely cold in this Ar- ctic region and little decisive action can result before next spring.

During the war Great Britain actu- ally lost nearly 1,000,000 men killed and dead thru various causes. 658- 704 were killed in battle.

Vice President Marshall will not as- sume the duties of President, during Pres. Wilson's absence in Europe, ac- cording to his own statement. The President's secretary will remain in Washington in charge of the execu- tive offices and handle the reins of gov- ernment on orders and directions from Pres. Wilson by cable messages.

The water supply was cut off at Camp Taylor, Thanksgiving day on account of a broken main, and caused considerable delay to the big holiday feast.

Soldiers and sailors in New York have been attacking and breaking up Socialist gatherings in Madison Square Garden. The Metropolitan police threaten to use machine guns on the military law breakers, unless the dis- turbances discontinue.

Elaborate plans have been made for reporting to the newspapers of Amer- ica daily reports of the Peace confer- ence which will probably last until next summer. News of the Peace Conference will take precedence in transmission over the Atlantic cable over all news except official govern- ment business.

King George, of England, is visiting in France this week.

Altho Germany and Austria will be broken up into many separate and in- dependent states, these integral parts of the former empires will be required by the allies to pay their pro rata shares of war debts and indemnities.

We learn from some of the young ladies of town that they will have visi- tors for the holidays. With the flu out of the way, an interesting time is guaranteed by the home girls and boys.

Will Go to France.

Prof. A. H. Ballard, who will do Y. M. C. A. work, has received word from New York that his application for a passport had been received and entered. Prof. Ballard is making his arrangements to go to France and will leave as soon as he is called. He is daily expecting a telegram notifying him to report in New York, where he will remain ten days or two weeks be- fore sailing.

Not Dead.

Some weeks ago, in the casualty list, Clarence T. Jackman, son of Mrs. Laura Jackman, this place, was report- ed missing in action. No word has as yet come direct from him, but he is evidently alive, as the Louisville Herald published his name some days ago, as being wounded and in a hospi- tal. He is supposed to be in a British hospital.

Married at Jamestown.

Saturday night of last week, Mr. Tom Hurt, who formerly lived near Esto and Mrs. Babe Higgins were married at Jamestown. Both the groom and the bride had been twice married before, losing wives and hus- bands. The groom is a native of Adair county.

Guinn Holt, of color, a son of Tom Holt, a prosperous farmer, who lives on Crocus, in Russell county, and who has been in the service of "Uncle Sam" since last August, stationed at Camp Grant, Illinois, reached Colum- bia last Monday night, having receiv- ed his discharge, en route home. He stated that the soldiers at his Camp were being discharged daily, and that a large number went out the day he received his papers.

When the boys all get home a day of jollification should be fixed and the people of Adair county should come together at Columbia. Such a meet- ing would be a mark of respect for the young men who went out to bat- tle for their country's cause.

The sick at the home of Judge G. T. Herfford are about well. Mrs. R. Y. Hindman and little daughter, Fannie, are also convalescent. In fact all the sick in the corporate limits of Colum- bia, who were stricken with the flu, are now going about. There are yet some cases scattered over the county.

Mr. Marcus Ellis and family have removed from the country to Colum- bia. They are occupying the J. A. Eng- lish residence, on Bomar Heights. Mr. Ellis who has been in a very pitiful condition for some time, is reported better.

Regulate the bowels when they fail to move properly. HERBINE is an admirable bowel regulator. It helps the liver and stomach and restores a fine feeling of strength and buoyancy. Sold by PAULL DRUG CO., Co- lumbia, Ky.

For Sale.

A new Singer Sewing machine that has not been used. In fine order. Ap- ply at this office.

Last Notice.

Under acts 1918 requires every owner or keeper of any dog to ap- ply to the County Clerk on or be- fore Jan. 1st. 1919 and buy a License for your dog. Only about 30 days remain for you to perform this duty and if you get caught do not blame the clerk.

Respect.

S. C. Neat, clerk, A. C. C.

Following is a word of warning on that subject:

Frankfort, Ky.,

Nov. 1918,

To the county clerks: Again, please say to your people that this Law will be enforced to the fullest extent of the power vested in this department and without fear or favor regardless of social financial or other prestige. Those who fail or refuse to comply with the act will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the Law.

Yours Truly,

Mat S. Cohen, Com. of Agr.

At the Lee Farris well, near Coburg, a strong stream of salt water has come in, and in it there is a little oil. An- other large drilling machine is now en route to Adair county, and it is expected in the next few weeks. It is further said that a number of wells will be put down in this territory, be- ginning early in next year. Dr. Miles, who was here sometime ago, expects to arrive the first of the year, from Colorado, with a large drilling outfit, and he will first operate near Sparks- ville where he has, as he considers, valuable holdings.

Read Burdette & Young's ad- vertisement of their big sale on back page of this paper.

We desire to return our sincere sym- pathy to Mr. Leslie Larimore, Circuit court clerk, of Green county, who lost his father, James Henry Larimore, on November 10th. The deceased was one of the best citizens of Green coun- ty. He was a friend to every body and every body was his friend. The Baptist Church has lost a zealous member, his sons and daughter a kind and an indulgent father, and the community in which he lived, an en- rrrprising and thrifty neighbor.

Mrs. Ermine Kearns, who lived in the Fairplay country, died Saturday night of last week. She was between seventy-five and eighty years old. She was very infirm and in a short time before she died she contracted the flu. Her maiden name was Bennett, a sis- ter of Chas. and Tim Bennett, who died many years ago.

No Thanksgiving services in Co- lumbia last Thursday, but all the bells in town were rung, as a reminder that it was the hour to return thanks for God's bountiful blessings bestowed— for a united country at peace with mankind.

Attention is called to the bank statements, published in today's pa- per.

The Tobacco Situation As It Looks At Present.

There is much uncertainty as to the prices that will be paid for tobacco on the market this year.

Sometime ago it was predicted that prices would be as high or higher than last year, but those who heretofore have been in a position to know, seem at a loss this season to predict just what effect the close of the world's war will have on the market.

There is a large supply of unmanu- factured tobacco on hand in this coun- try and a shortage in Europe, and it seems if shipping facilities should be- come less difficult than they have in the past few years, and the congestion be relieved you might expect higher prices.

While there is a shortage in Ken- tucky, the production as a whole is several million lbs. larger.

These things taken into considera- tion with other unprecedented condi- tions throught the country, and unset- tled monetary conditions of foreign countries, it seems hard to tell when will be the best time to market your tobacco.

It looks as if burley of good quality will open up well, but above all both Dark and Burley MUST be in good or- der to sell well.

We have known for some time that the large dealers and manufacturers would not be on the market until af- ter December 10th, and for these rea- sons would not announce our opening until Wednesday, December 11th.

It is not our policy to secure your patronage by unfair means and flatter- ing reports of prices. You will find our market will be conducted on the square. You will be well cared for, in your turn. You will receive courteous treatment, and your tobacco will be given the best attention possible to secure the highest price. Our fees for selling remain the same as last year.

While we are informed some other markets have raised, we have not. Any inquiry by letter or phone will receive prompt attention.

Farmers Tobacco Warehouse Co.,
Per Sam Bottom.

A Monument.

It has been suggested that a mag- nificent shaft, a monument, be erect- ed in Columbia in honor of the Adair county boys who lost their lives in France, and who died in Camps. It should be one that would do credit to the county, one that parents of the dead heroes and their friends would take a pride in. Many towns in Ken- tucky now have memorial monuments and others will be erected. A shaft of the proper height for Adair county boys would perhaps cost from $2,000 to $3,000, but the sum could be easily raised, with a small amount from each donor. We owe this manifestation of remembrance to our dead soldiers and we hope that a move will be start- ed at once to raise the money.

F. E. Wilson, Manager.

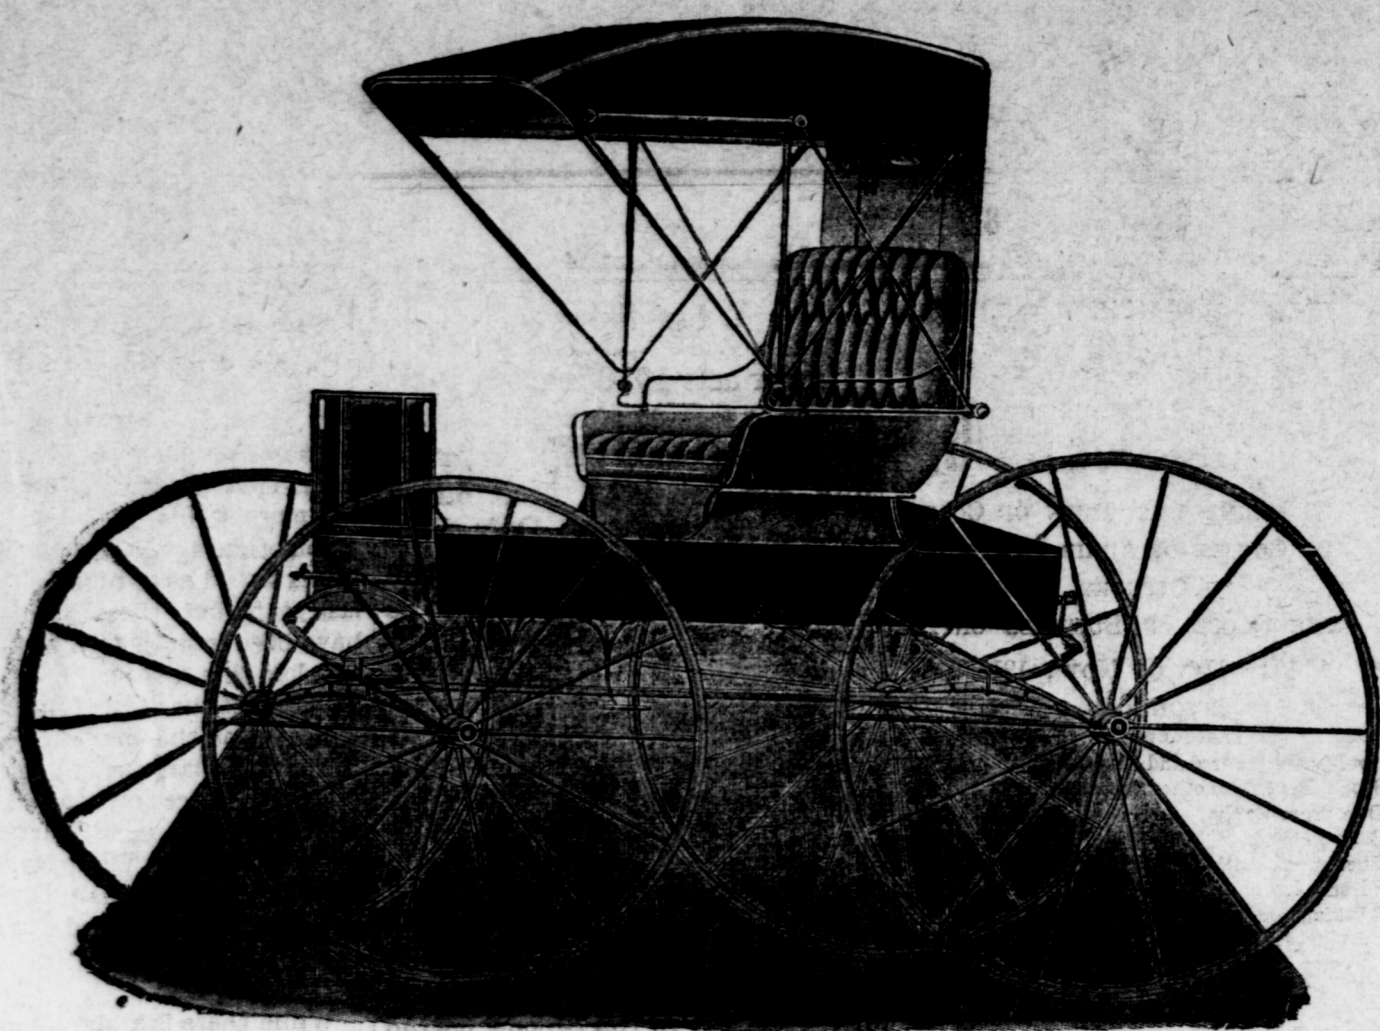

The Greensburg Tobacco warehouse opens on Dec. 12. Mr. F. E. Wilson succeeds Mr. Howard as manager this season. Mr. Wilson was formerly a big league base ball player and a star in the game. He is a live wire in the tobacco business and will give great impetus to the business of this already successful warehouse. Their floors are already filled with tobacco for the opening sale on the 12th.

Mr. R. K. Young is disposing of his household goods preparatory to remov- ing to Mississippi. He and his family expect to leave for that State in a very short time. Mr. Young is a splendid farmer and a thrifty trader, a gentleman who has many friends, and he and his family will be greatly missed from Columbia.

Mr. T. J. Epperson, of Montpelier, has purchased of J. W. Walker the latter's residence on Bomar Heights. Consideration, $3,000. Mr. Epperson will remove to Columbia and we un- derstand that Mr. Walker will go to New Mexico with his family.

Mr. Harlan Show returned from Nashville last week, where he had been employed by the Dupont people. He states that construction work was stopped, and fifteen thousand hands dismissed.

The remains of a young married man named Hudson, who was a son-in-law of Mr. C. C. Holt, passed thro here last Saturday, en route to his for- mer home, Esto, Russell county. He had been to Stithton, contracted the flu, and died at Campbellsville, en route to his home.

The flu situation does not improve here. The family of W. L. Calhoun, Joe Jones and J. M.

Antle have been very sick with that malady.

Mr. T. J. Epperson sold his farm, near Pleasant Hill church, known as the Capt. O. B. Patterson farm, to Mr. Allen Walker, of Columbia, for $6,000. We understand that Mr. Epperson has purchased property in Columbia. This removal almost completes the exodus of original inhabitants of this community that has been taking place in the last decade or so.

Mrs. Omara Jeffries, of Columbia visited the family of G. A. Bradshaw last week.

The War Work campaign here resulted in Glenville precinct going over the top in raising its quota. Worthy of special mention is the effort made in Zion School District, where Mrs. A. O. Young and Miss Kathreen Willis as the workers in that school district raised more than three times their apportionment.

Mrs. G. A. Bradshaw, who has been very sick, is some better.

Miss Mollie Blakey and her little brother, in attempting to ford Russell creek at Epperson's Mill, last Sunday, barely escaped being drowned. The creek being very full their buggy washed down stream and hung on an obstruction, when the horse tore lose from the buggy. Miss Blakey by holding to a limb of a tree prevented the buggy from drifting away till she could be rescued by neighbors who were attracted by her cries for help.

The din and noise of the celebration here, on the night of the 11th, attained proportions never before heard of in this community. But we have not till this good day been able to ascertain whether the rejoicing was more over the flogging of the Huns or that the closing of the war would end the excuse for charging 200 per cent. profit on everything anybody has to sell.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes: "From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain. . .

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

Dead Smith killed in action, on Sept. 29, that is all it said, not for self, but all for justice, and for honor true and bright, 'twas for these he gave his heart's blood when he perished in the fight. Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep, from which none ever wakes to weep, a calm and undisturb repose, unbroken by the last of foes. It is sad that one we cherished should be taken from our home, but the joys that do not perish lives in memory alone. All the years we've lived together, all the happy golden hours shall be cherished in remembrance. Fragrant sweet from memory flowers. Farewell Deed, but not forever, There will be a glorious dawn; We shall meet to part no never, on the resurrection morn. Tho thy darling form lies sleeping in the cold and silent tomb, thou shalt have a glorious wakening when the blessed Lord doth come. A precious one from us has gone, a voice we loved is stilled, a place is vacant in our home which never can be filled. God in his wisdom has recalled, the boon his love had given; and though the body slumbers here the soul is safe in Heaven.

Deed was killed in action, while serving as an Infantry man, with the American Expeditionary force, Co., H., 120. He heard humanity's clear call and knew the Voice Divine. He gave his life, he gave his all in deadly battle line. The silent stars in love look down, where lies this loyal son in frost and dew they weave a crown of honor he has won.

Somewhere in France.

Dear mother:
I will drop you a few lines to let you know I am well, hope you the same. I have written you two or three letters since I have been in France, but haven't received any answer. I received the letter you wrote me while at Camp Stuart, to day.

Well I sure have seen lots, just come off the front lines, so I have been over the top and came back safely to a rest station.

Well I don't want you to worry about me, for it looks like the war is near at an end, and I am in hopes of coming home soon.

Tell Lucian I hope he won't have to leave home for you need him. Tell all the folks hello for me, and write soon.

BRIDE of BATTLE

A Romance of the AMERICAN ARMY Fighting on the Battlefields of FRANCE

COPYRIGHT, 1918, BY W. G. CHAPMAN, JR.

To be continued next week.

Tribute to a Dear Brother.

It often gives us a feeling of gloom to see a young man or woman cut off just at the age when life seems so full of promise. Deed Smith was born Nov. 5, 1885, and was killed Sept. 29, 1918. Had he lived until Nov. 5 he would have been 33 year old. He joined the army Oct. 3, 1917. Deed was a noble son and a loving brother. In writing he would say, "papa don't worry about me for I am alright, but if I fall on the battlefield, my trust is in God." These thoughts are of especial comfort to the heartbroken father, sisters and brothers, as well to the multitude of other dear friends, but he died for his country. Deed, our boy, Dead, why should our eyes grow dim. Choke back the tears; we will be proud and glad; no black upon our service flag for him.

He left his home in perfect health. He looked so young and brave, we little thought how soon he'd be, laid in a soldier's grave. Somewhere in France he is lying, or may be on Italy's sod, what a glory was his dying, for liberty country and God.

Yes, that dreadful message came, Nov. 4, 1918 Private friends wish them much success in their new field of labor.

Misses Rosa Sinclair and Ruth Holladay were in our community last Friday. Miss Ruth informed us that she has a position in Alabama, and will leave for that place in a few days.

Mr. W. S. Pickett and family spent Sunday at Rev. Joe Firkin, of Keltner.

Bell Pile, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pile, died on the 14th ult., after a very serious operation for appendicitis. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of this community in their loss. May they look to him who is able to comfort them in time of sorrow.

WALKER BRYANT HAS CALL.

Under the rotation agreement in the Nineteenth senatorial district, Adair, Barren and Metcalfe counties, it is the first-named county's time to furnish the Democratic nominee for State Senator, and, as it is conceded that this will be done, interest in the nomination is confined to Adair county. It seems to be generally admitted that Walker Bryant, former County Clerk of Adair county and one of the best known party men in that section of the State, has the call on the nomination, and it is hardly likely that there will be any other aspirant for the honor. Mr. Bryant has been groomed for the senatorship for some time, and he is largely responsible for the act taking Adair out of the old Sixteenth and putting it in a Democratic district.—Louisville Times.

OUR THANKSGIVING.

We were thankful for many good things. Thankful to God for his tender mercies and kindly disposition for us during our first year just closed in Columbia. Thankful that the war is over, and that we and our family have so far been spared from affliction with Flu.

We were thankful to "Ras" McKinley for a large sack of fine turnips, brought us from his farm some time ago. Thankful to many of our neighbors, for many good hands and twists of "long green" that we enjoy in our moments of quiet reverie. Thankful to C. S. Harris for some very delicious turnips that we have stored away for our lean winter days, and a large cabbage head. We hope that he will remember us with a pig jowl too, later on. This will make us more grateful for his turnips.

We were thankful to the charming host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Jeffries, for the delightful turkey dinner that we enjoyed with them at their Hotel on Thursday. A more delicious menu could not have been provided by these genial and happy folks for their guests and friends. 'Till the late hours of the evening our little Margaret still sighed for the vanished turkey and the cranberry sauce that was gone, and the gentle spouse of her sire, chided our longing for the golden milk of rare and delightful flavor.

St. Malo France.

Dear Mother:—

I will drop you a few lines to let you know I am well and enjoying life fine, after two days and a half riding on the train I found myself in St Malo France. Gee it is some fine place too.

I have some swell Hotel to stay at night and I spent the most of the day out sight seeing. I will be here seven more days yet, and I think the war will be over by the time I get back.

Lots of good news today in the papers. I am having a good rest all by myself talking to the French girls, they sure think lots of the American soldiers.

I wish that I had some of you all here with me. My trip would be much more pleasanter. But as I can't have any of you here with me, I will make the best of it and try and enjoy myself the best I can, hoping that I will see you all soon, and will come back thinking that I have done my part towards ending this war.

I have been to the front many times and I have been over the top seven times, and not a scratch yet, and thank the Lord for that. I have gone through shell fire when it looked impossible for man to go through, and I have gone when the air was full of rifle bullets and I have been in all the different kinds of Gases and yet I am one among the lucky ones who went all the way through. Whoever thought of me getting a trip like this, some nice of Uncle Sam don't you think? Well I will try and make him a better soldier when I get

Sergeant Dessie Cowherd,

Louisville.

Having about recovered from a long spell of fever will try to give a few news items from the city. So far as I am able to ascertain all of the Adair county contingent here are well and getting along fine.

The flu ban was lifted here three weeks ago and the people were so glad to have an opportunity to attend religious services again. The schools are doing fine, and attendance is even better than last year.

One of the largest parades ever staged was here last Saturday. Ten thousand soldiers marched in the parade, together with thousands of civilians. There was over one hundred floats in the parade, each representing some industry. It was hard to say which float was the best. In the military section of the parade every form of instrument of warfare from the old fashion sabre to the latest improved machine gun and cannon was shown. The parade was so large that it took over four hours for it all to pass a given point. And during the time of the parade seven airships of the latest battle type were circling over the city.

Thanksgiving services were held in all of the Churches here; also at Kieth's National Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Buel Shive, Rugby, were here a few days ago, and Mrs. Shive will undergo an operation at St. Anthony's hospital.

Well, that the war is over we hope that times will soon return to normal conditions. The soldiers stationed at Camp Zachary Taylor, and at Camp Knox are being discharged as rapidly as possible. About two to five hundred are being sent home each day. All will be discharged, but all who want to remain in the army will be given an opportunity to re-enlist after a thirty day furlough to home. It is the intention of the Government, so we learn, to keep about forty thousand soldiers at the two camps near here. But all of these will be volunteers.

The people of Louisville were very much surprised at the result of the election in the city. But then such things will happen occasionally. And now everybody are turning their to the next State race. There is much speculation as to candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

The entire family of Mr. Charlie Sparks are and have been confined with the flu. They are all improving at this time.

There have been several crops of both Dark and Burley tobacco sold in this section during the past two weeks at prices ranging from 15 to 30 cents per lb.

The family of Walker Wilson have been in a serious condition with flu for the past week or ten days. There has been two deaths in his family and several others dangerously sick.

Born, to the wife of Luke Sherrill, on the 10th of November, a daughter. Mother and child doing well.

Mr. Merida Wilson, who has been living in our town for a number of years, bought him a farm a few days ago, and will in the near future move to it. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are citizens we can commend to any community.

John Q. Alexander, the popular dry goods man of Louisville, was calling on his trade in our town last Wednesday and as usual had a fine business.

Rev. J. S. Chandler,
Dear Friend:—

I got your letter just after we had broken through the Hindenburg line. It certainly was some line, dugouts from 40 to 100 feet deep, fixed up like modern city residences, and barb wire so thick a snake could hardly get through, but the tanks smashed it. The Australian artillery put over one of the biggest barrages of the war. More than 1,000 guns, on one sector alone, started ed firing at the same instant and kept it up for more than 3 hrs. Nothing could live. In walking over a field next day, I saw dead birds, mice and rabbits. We have driven the "Hun" more than 30 miles since we began on this sector.

I was sorry to hear of Senator James' death. I cannot think who will even be a substitute for him. I am getting rusty on things American. We will soon be wearing a service stripe. Mr. Wilson as the English papers put him, is the whole show with people over here.

I was about to forget to tell you how thankful I am that God has cared for me. He surely has been with me, I have been in two Hun barrages that were something fierce. Under shell fire a great number of times, almost buried also a few times, had a piece of shrapnel through my coat, but I am through it all so far safe and sound.

Noel Thomas, you know, was seriously wounded, two Adair boys were killed, three wounded two gassed.

I beg to remain your friend,
Sam K. Duvall.

P. S. Give my regards to the family. I would write to Paul if I knew his address.

The McCombs Producing & Refining Company announces three more successful complete wells. Two in the "Big Sinking" districts one producing 400 bbls. daily, the other 250 bbls. and a 100 bbl. well near Torrent, Ky.

Mr. Abram Renick, of Winchester, Ky., President of the Company also corroborates the statement that three additional wells are about completed. This makes 84 producing wells now owned by this company.

Sam Bottom on His Job.

"Early Bird Office" is the inscription over the door of the business headquarters of the Campbellsville Farmers Tobacco Warehouse, where Sam Bottom, Mgr., looks after the interests of his clients early and late. This warehouse began receiving tobacco, Monday, the 2nd, and will hold its opening sale on Dec. 11th. It will pay the farmers to take Mr. Bottom's advice about how to handle tobacco for market.

SURGEONS agree that in cases of Cuts, Burns, Bruises, and Wounds, the FIRST TREATMENT is most important. When an EFFICIENT antiseptic is applied promptly, there is no danger of infection and the wound begins to heal at once. For use on man or beast, BOROZONE is the IDEAL ANTISEPTIC and HEALING AGENT. Buy it now and be ready for an emergency. Sold by PAULL DRUG CO., Columbia, Ky.

The oil business in Adair county is not dead, as several wells are now going down. Mr. Stoeber, who is drilling in the Southern part of the county, feels confident that he will strike oil, in paying quantities, before he quit stops. Richardson & Goff, who are operating for a foreign company, feel confident that they will be rewarded.

STOCK ADVANCES TO
$2.50 Per Share
Present Price $2.00 Per Share
Par Value $1.00 Per Share

The money raised from the sale of this stock will continue to be used, as it has been used in the past, in the development and expansion of the company's properties. Over $825,000.00 of capital raised from the sale of stock has been invested in properties and equipment in the twelve months of the company's existence. Its outstanding position today as the leader among the independent oil companies operating in Kentucky may be ascribed to following this policy of expansion. Results accomplished to date are but a forerunner of those which may be expected to ensue from the further development of the company's concededly valuable holdings, and expansion in the field of its operations through increasing the size of its refining plant, now operating, and the purchase of additional producing properties. In view of progress to date "McCombs" stock at $2.00 per share is an extremely attractive investment opportunity with the probabilities of unlimited enhancement in value.
